

Mitigate Risk with Research Billing Compliance Services

Ensure you are billing for clinical research confidently and in compliance with federal requirements by utilizing Advarra's Institutional Research Center of Excellence (CoE) Consulting Services. Regardless of complexity of a clinical trial, therapeutic or device niche, or number of sites, Advarra is your partner to ensure research clinical research billing compliance, administration, and operations.

Why Advarra's Research Billing Services?

- Identify compliance and operational gaps affecting research billing
- Avoid potential regulatory and legal infractions
- Industry experts with experience in addressing research billing matters
- Comprehensive, tailored advisory services

Comprehensive Services Include:

Compliance assessment

Review and enhance research billing functions, including:

- Documented policy and procedures
- Training and education
- Monitoring and auditing
- Compliance controls
- Remediation

Operations assessment

Evaluate and enhance research billing operations functions, including:

- Coverage analysis development
- Research participant tracking
- Charge capture
- Charge segregation processes

Charge segregation/bill scrubbing

Assisting in processing and clearing charges for research participants

Research billing audit

Examine and test accuracy of coverage analyses, hospital/professional fee charges, and Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) required research coding elements for compliance with applicable laws, regulations, policies, and best practices

Training

Provide educational sessions on research billing compliance and operations

Ad hoc advisory

Guidance and insights on all things research billing